Goals disallowed for offside have inevitably been a major talking point in our dressing room of late.

You may recall that during our match at Bristol Rovers we saw John Cornwell have a spectacular goal ruled out when offside was given against another Orient player.

More recently, in our last home match with Southend, we had two goals disallowed for offside, the second of them the most controversial of the three.

Personally, I found it difficult to understand how Mark McNeil on the far left side of goal could be regarded as interfering with the play when Shaun Brooks beat three opponents in what used to be the inside right position and scored with a decisive shot.

The referee's decision, made when a linesman signalled and without any apparent consultation between them, was based on the presumption that McNeil was interfering with the play. That we have to accept, as it is the referee's interpretation of the law that finally counts.

Let me also say that I felt the referee, Mr. H.W. King, overall, had a superb match and was among the best we have had this season. He also had charge of our crucial final game of last season against Sheffield United and he is an official who has impressed me immensely on both occasions.

The Southend game was allowed to flow and there was no question of Mr. King hiding behind his notebook to maintain control, and I raise the point about goals being disallowed for offside against players other than the scorer in strictly general terms rather than as any specific criticism of this referee. That is far from the case.

Yet the fact is that managers and coaches are currently being urged to be positive, to go for goals and to entertain the public in the hope that more of them will come to our games, and then go home talking about goals of the quality that Shaun Brooks had appeared to have scored against Southend.

We do of late seem to have an inordinate number of goals disallowed for offside against players other than the man who has put the ball in the net, and I make this observation not just from games in which Orient have been involved.

True, we have down the years had goals disallowed for the same reason. Yet one suspects that had the law been rigidly interpreted the way it is nowadays during the Stanley Matthews era, many of the goals he created would have been disallowed because he was still on the by-line when the ball was tucked into the net.

In the more specific instance of the Southend match, the ruling out of a second goal for Shaun Brooks so nearly rebounded on us, in that our opponents not unnaturally got on with the business of taking a free-kick and were themselves close to scoring at our end.

A second goal at that stage of the match would have made for a less anxious final 15 minutes for us, in that when you are holding a 1-0 lead for so long tension tends to appear in your play.

Southend, perhaps sensing they could salvage something from a game in which they could have been a couple of goals down at half-time, put us under a certain amount of second half pressure, and basically I thought we defended soundly and coped well with it.

The one disappointment was, of course, that we did not cash in on the many chances we created.

This evening we renew acquaintance with Bolton Wanderers who beat us 3-2 in an excellent match at Burnden Park back in November.

Their manager John McGovern is a long-standing acquaintance of mine from our playing days together at Nottingham Forest.

I think it fair to say that he had something of a traumatic time in his first season as manager at Bolton in that the club were relegated.

I am pleased for him that things have obviously gone that much better during the present season, although we are obviously eager to put a temporary halt to Bolton's progress this evening.

On Saturday we make an early return to Brentford, scene of our 3-2 defeat in a highly-competitive Associate Member's Cup tie.

While somewhat maligned the competition may be, it nevertheless provided an opportune meeting for both Brentford and ourselves, coming in the week that it did.

In Brentford's case, it gave their new management team of Frank McLintock and John Docherty and the players a chance to get to know one another further, and the team played with the spirit and determination to be expected in such circumstances.

FRANK CLARK'S MANAGEMENT VIEWPOINT

In our case, the value of Andy Sussex being involved in such a game became more evident the following weekend when he came into the side to replace the suspended Tommy Cunningham and had what I felt was an important part in our keeping a clean sheet against Southend.

We have both Tommy Cunningham and Bill Roffey unavailable this evening for the second consecutive match as a result of suspension.

Without knowing the outcome of Saturday's game at Sheffield United at the time of this Matchday Magazine going to press, I can but add that this evening's task also becomes that much more difficult for reason of the limited number of players available from which to name a side.

Welcome to

BOLTON WANDERERS

Of the three clubs relegated from Division Two last season, Bolton Wanderers have, throughout 1983-84, seemed the most likely to regain that status at the first attempt.

Neighbours Burnley have been somewhat inconsistent, Rotherham United are pre-occupied with climbing clear from the other end of the table, while Wanderers visited Hull City at the weekend for a match of tremendous significance to both clubs in terms of staying in contact with the leaders.

Their victory over Port Vale the previous weekend meant that John McGovern's team were still very much involved in the promotion issue, so three points will clearly be their aim this evening on their reappearance at Leyton Stadium after a season's break.

For Bolton a success here would be something of a Football League rarity in that they have not defeated Orient in East London since season 1962-63 when both clubs were in the First Division.

Not that their visits have been totally unrewarded during this time, for after four further defeats they shared draws with Orient in five consecutive Second Division matches with us before succumbing 3-2 on their last appearance here late in season 1981-82.

Bolton's 42 League goals prior to the weekend's game at Hull had been credited to Caldwell 18, Chandler 9, Rudge 6, Foster 2, Deakin, Joyce, Valentine, Redfearn, McElhinney, Foster, Thompson 1 each.

Wanderers' record on opponents' grounds in Third Division games this season, again not taking into account the Hull fixture, reads:

Won 2-0 at Bradford, 2-1 at Port Vale, 1-0 at Southend, 1-0 at Wigan;

Drew 2-2 at Bournemouth, 2-2 at Exeter, 0-0 at Lincoln, 1-1 at Rotherham;

Lost 1-2 at Bristol Rovers, 0-2 at Gillingham, 0-2 at Plymouth, 0-1 at Scunthorpe, 0-5 at Sheffield United, 0-1 at Walsall, 0-4 at Wimbledon.

our Visitors

JOHN PLATT (Goalkeeper) Seven seasons with Oldham and subsequently with Bury, he was signed as likely successor to McDonagh, but has found himself playing Central League football and number two to Farnworth.

BRIAN BORROWS (Defender) Liverpoolian who has had senior experience with Everton — 12 League games last season. Joined Wanderers for a small fee on the eve of the 1983 transfer deadline. Can play in midfield.

RAY DEAKIN (Defender) Moved to Burnden Park from Port Vale on a free transfer in the summer of 1982. Previously with Everton. Thirty Second Division games last season. Ever present in the number three shirt this season until mid-January.

GRAHAM BELL (Midfield) Returned to Lancashire from Carlisle United on a free transfer. Has previously worn Oldham Athletic colours against Orient.

WARREN JOYCE (Midfield) Born Oldham. Son of club coach Walter Joyce, the former Blackburn and Burnley player. Debut last season when he played five League games. A county cricketer at colts level and a Rugby Union tourist while a schoolboy.

GERRY McELHINNEY (Defender) Former Gaelic footballer and amateur boxer who joined Bolton from Distillery at the beginning of season 1980-81. On fringe of the last Northern Ireland World Cup squad, he has since been capped at senior international level.

PETER VALENTINE (Defender) Figured in the exchange deal that took Bolton captain Paul Jones to Huddersfield Town last summer. Played five League games for his home-town club in Division Three last season. Can also operate in midfield.

STEVE THOMPSON (Midfield) Born Oldham. Had just three first-team appearances last season, all away from home, and his re-appearance in the League side — at Burnden Park — coincided with Wanderers' early-season 8-1 win over current leaders Walsall. Continued as a regular until Wanderers again met Walsall in the FA Cup.

JEFF CHANDLER (Forward) Born Hammersmith. Previously with Blackpool, he has gained international recognition with the Republic of Ireland. Cost Bolton £40,000 when he joined them from Leeds United in October, 1981. Thirty five League games last season when he scored four goals, he has been ever present during 1983-84.

SIMON RUDGE (Forward) Lightweight forward from Warrington who last season scored three Second Division goals from 21 appearances for a struggling side.

WAYNE FOSTER (Forward) Comes from Leigh. Joined the club during 1981-82 season. Earned England youth recognition against Scotland in a European Championship qualifier. Four goals from 21 Second Division appearances last season.

TONY CALDWELL (Forward) Former non-League player with a goal-scoring reputation who joined Wanderers from Horwich as a part-timer. Soon made his mark on the Third Division scene with five goals in his club's 8-1 early-season win over Walsall.

STEVE SAUNDERS (Forward) Injuries denied this Warrington-born striker a first-team opportunity last season. Played the first four senior games of 1983-84. Has since been convalescing following a hernia operation.

NEIL BERRY (Defender) Scottish youth international who, after being substitute on a number of occasions, made his League debut against Preston in December.

JOHN MCGOVERN (Midfield) Appointed player-manager in June, 1982. Has won League championship honours as a player with Derby County and Nottingham Forest, having earlier served Brian Clough at Hartlepool. While at Forest he captained the club to two European Cup and two League Cup successes. Played 14 League games last season, but had not appeared at senior level during 1983-84 at the time of writing.

Action from last season's Orient v Newport County match when the Welsh club were 5-1 winners on this ground. John Aldridge continues to be among the goals for County with 20 of the first 40 they scored in League matches this season. Home players in this flashback to the 1982-83 game are Kevin Godfrey and Mark McNeil. Newport are the next visitors to Leyton Stadium on Saturday week. (Photo: George Flower).

With 20 goals to his credit in Canon League games as last weekend's programme approached, NEWPORT COUNTY striker John Aldridge not only held a place among the Third Division's leading marksmen, but enjoyed the distinction of having scored precisely half his club's goals in the competition this season.

County were probably always going to have to rely heavily upon the former South Liverpool forward's talents up front following the sale of last season's leading scorer Tommy Tynan to Plymouth Argyle last close season.

During season 1982-83 Tynan and Aldridge bagged 25 and 17 Third Division goals respectively, and with Steve Lowndes, now MILLWALL, and Nigel Vaughan, who has moved on to Cardiff City, having weighed in with another 19 between them, some sizeable gaps were left in the regular goal-scoring ranks at a club who are ORIENT'S next visitors on Saturday, March 17.

Indeed, looking down County's current goal-scoring chart, next man after Aldridge is Vaughan, three of whose five goals, came from penalties and he left Somerton Park for Second Division football with Cardiff back in September!

Tynan, incidentally, after a lean period with Argyle that saw him left out of the side for a brief spell, is now back in his familiar place as a club's leading scorer.

The week's Third Division matches, last season's corresponding results bracketed where applicable.

Tonight: Bristol Rovers v Rotherham (-), Hull v Bournemouth (-), Orient v Bolton (-), Plymouth v Brentford (2-0), Preston v Burnley (-), Sheffield United v Oxford (3-2), Walsall v Scunthorpe (-), Wigan v Millwall (3-1).

Lincoln v Gillingham (3-1).

Saturday: Bolton v Exeter (-), Brentford v Oxford (1-1), Bristol Rovers v Wimbledon (-), Burnley v Millwall (-), Lincoln v Wigan (2-0), Orient v Newport (1-5), Plymouth v Bournemouth (2-0), Preston v Gillingham (0-0), Scunthorpe v Bradford (-), Sheffield United v Hull (-), Walsall v Rotherham (-).

NEWS ON THREE

He now has eight for middle-of-the table Plymouth and his move to Devon has, of course, taken him to a club just two matches away from an FA Cup Final appearance at Wembley.

Just what a cup run can do for a club was demonstrated when Plymouth entertained HULL CITY. The attendance, with the inducement of tickets for the sixth round tie with Derby County doubtless boosting the figures, was 10,023. Other than the Christmas period Devon derby with EXETER CITY that attracted 10,387 spectators to Home Park, that was more than twice the average attendance that Plymouth have been attracting for League games this season.

BRADFORD CITY'S 2-1 victory over WALSALL at Fellows Park was further evidence of the Yorkshire club's capabilities after their wretched start to the season.

Since Saturday, October 24, at which stage they had just seven points from 12 games and languished in 23rd place in the table, City had, at the time of writing, proceeded to earn 39 points from 17 fixtures — an average of 2.29 points a match.

That sort of output if maintained over a season's 46-match programme would give them some 105 points — 14 more than when Portsmouth won the Third Division title last term.

Division Three leading scorers (up to and including Sunday, February 26, League games only):

24 Cork (Wimbledon);

21 Edwards (Sheffield United), Aldridge (Newport County);

18 Hawley (Bradford City), Caldwell (Bolton);

15 Hamilton (Burnley);

13 Morgan (Bournemouth), Phillips (Southend);

12 Reeves (Burnley), Mehmet (Gillingham), Cammack (Scunthorpe), Morris (Sheffield United), Brown (Walsall);

11 Joseph (Brentford), Hodges (Wimbledon);

10 McEwan & Pratt (Exeter), Elliott (Preston), Marwood (Hull).

OFF THE PARK

Following the success of our earlier venture, when the Christmas period match with AFC Bournemouth received such backing, it has been decided to invite supporters to take part in collective sponsorship of a further Canon League game at Leyton Stadium.

Match chosen is that against Newport County on Saturday, March 17.

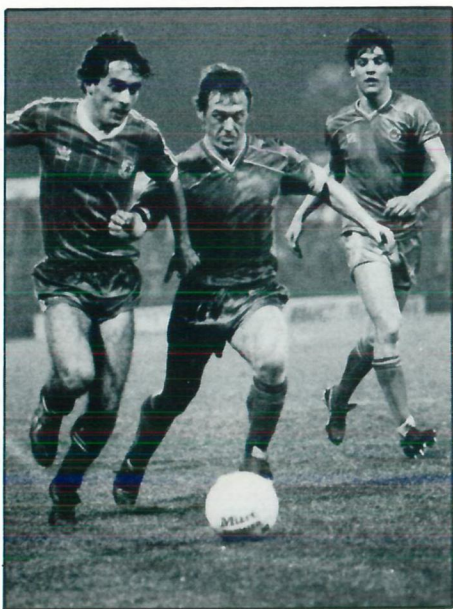

Any supporter wishing to have a stake in sponsoring this fixture for as little as £30 is invited to contact Alan Osborne or Frank Woolf at the club's Commercial Centre on 539-4483 for full details.

We are again looking to some 20 supporters to help the club and also enjoy a memorable afternoon at Leyton Stadium.

Sponsors for the day will be received at our exclusive Sponsors' Lounge at around 1.30 p.m. and served with drinks and a buffet lunch.

Shortly before kick-off they will be shown to reserved seats in the directors' box with further refreshments served during the half-time interval.

After the final whistle there will be the opportunity to meet Orient's players and officials of the club at an informal get together.

A goal from Shaun Brooks — pictured in our earlier game against Wigan Athletic — gave Orient a 1-0 victory in the last match to be played here against Southend United. Brooks, unluckily in most spectators' view, had a further splendid goal disallowed. (Photo: George Flower).

Thirteen clean sheets from his first 31 Canon League matches with the club. That was goalkeeper Richard Key's record following Orient's 1-0 victory over Southend. Richard, right, is the second Key to have played for Orient. By coincidence, his namesake, John, below, a forward who had just nine League outings for the club in season 1968-69 before injury cut short his playing days, had, like our present goalkeeper, been with Coventry City earlier in his career. LEYTON STADIUM FLASHBACK

Five Years Ago

Orient share a 1-1 home draw with Bristol Rovers on Saturday, March 3, 1979.

Rovers earn their point despite having midfield man Frank Prince sent off for a verbal offence just four minutes into the second half.

Ian Moores is Orient's scorer from the penalty spot, this player having won a midweek "spot kick competition" from Paul Went to decide who should be the first-team taker now that Peter Kitchen has been transferred to Fulham.

Orient manager Jimmy Bloomfield is unsuccessful with bids to sign Chelsea midfield players Duncan McKenzie and Garry Stanley.

Newcomer to Os' playing staff is Mark Gray, a Welsh youth international, who has joined the playing staff from Fulham as part of the Kitchen deal.

Ten Years Ago

On Sunday, March 10, 1974 Brisbane Road stages its first-ever game on the Sabbath, a Second Division fixture with Oxford United.

In front of a crowd of 10,365 the outcome is a 1-1 draw. Derrick Downing is Os' scorer.

It is the second consecutive Sunday game for Os, who the previous week shared a goalless draw at Crystal Palace before 39,533 spectators.

Sudden popularity of Sunday games arises from the country's industrial problems and the prohibition on the use of floodlights for soccer.

The Oxford result means that Orient have not won a Second Division match since beating Sunderland on January 19, and it would appear that their bid for promotion is beginning to falter.

YOUNG ORIENT

Two down at half-time, Orient Colts pulled back these goals to earn a 2-2 draw against Watford in a South East Counties League game the weekend before last.

This match saw Kevin Squires, a schoolboy recruit from Basildon make his South East Counties debut as substitute and produce a pleasing performance. Terry Drew's two goals took him into double figures in League games for the season.

HAT-TRICK COUNTBACK

As Tommy Cunningham's hat-trick for Os at Exeter recently was the first on an opposition ground by an Orient player for two decades — and the first ever by an Os defender in an away game — it is appropriate to look back down the years with a recap on comparable goal-scoring feats and hat-tricks in particular.

NEIL KAUFMAN, of SVP Information Group, of South Africa, co-author of the last official history of Orient Football Club to be published, researched the subject of goal-scoring and hat-tricks before leaving this country.

Statistics that he deposited with the club reveal that before Cunningham scored his three goals at Exeter last month there had been 55 hat-tricks on Orient's behalf in League matches since the club joined the competition in 1905-06.

There have, in addition, been two hat-tricks in FA Cup ties.

Cunningham's goals were the first such treble by a defender away from home. And the fact that they were scored in the space of around 16 minutes must surely represent one of the quickest hat-tricks, certainly by a defender, on an away ground in Football League history.

Only other Orient player to have scored a hat-trick while playing as a defender was Sam Tonner against Stockport County during season 1921-22. Mick Jones, who served the club principally as full-back, scored three times against Doncaster Rovers during season 1966-67, but that day was playing as an inside forward, to use the parlance just going out of fashion at about that time!

Cunningham's hat-trick was the fifth scored against Exeter City by an Orient player, the only other League club to have conceded as many "trebles" to an Os man being Bristol City.

Neil Kaufman's researches on the history of Orient goal-scoring come up with the following:

A WEEK IN HOLLAND COULD BE YOURS

A week's holiday for two in Holland, donated by Stallard Travel Ltd, is the attractive first prize in Orient's Grand Spring Draw for which tickets are now available.

Additional prizes include a 14 inch black and white television; two tickets to a pop concert; lunch and tickets for two at an Orient match donated by the Vice-Presidents' Club; six bottles of whiskey and a selection of wines.

Basic price of a ticket is 20p.

The draw takes place at half-time during our match with Lincoln City on Saturday, April 7.

Orient Commercial Centre will provide additional information — and extra supplies of tickets to those willing to assist the club with this fund-raising venture launched by the Resources Committee.

MATCHDAY MASCOTS ARE ONCE AGAIN WANTED

Matchday mascots, whose principal duty will be to lead the Orient team out at home matches, are again being recruited.

Boys and girls are both eligible to perform this duty, which has been a pre-kick-off feature of games played at Leyton Stadium for several seasons past.

We do stress that, unlike some other Football League clubs, we do not ask a fee from parents or guardians whose children act as Orient's matchday mascot.

Opportunities to be mascot exist at certain home games during the rest of the current season.

If past experience is anything to go by, we will probably quickly assemble a waiting list for season 1984-85.

Letters of application, setting out the youngster's name, address, age, school, other interests and favourite Orient player, are invited by Graham Sinclair, Orient's public relations officer, c/o Orient Football Club, Leyton Stadium, Brisbane Road, Leyton E10 5NE.

Music played at Orient home matches is from the extensive stocks of cassettes and records held by Direct Music, of High Road, Leyton.

Brisbane

Orient completed their programme of two Sunday home matches for the season by defeating Southend United the weekend before last, this following a 2-1 victory over Rotherham United a month earlier.

These two victories, it should perhaps be put on record, represent our first at home in Sunday fixtures, the previous seven having all resulted in draws, this strange sequence having started back in 1980-81 season.

In the case of Southend, Orient had a Kevin Godfrey goal disallowed before Shaun Brooks moved on to a Peter Kitchen pass to score the only goal of the game in the 26th minute.

Both Kitchen and Godfrey were close to further goals before the interval, and as the second half commenced the latter was again denied reward by a desperate, feet-first save by Southend goalkeeper John Keeley.

Having enjoyed so many escapes, Southend began to assert themselves more and there was always the danger that they might have pulled one back, particularly remembering that they forced no less than ten second half corners.

Fifteen minutes from the end a splendid run by Brooks carried him past a succession of opponents and he planted a decisive shot past Keeley for what would have been a welcome second goal.

A linesman's signal, however, prompted the referee to disallow the effort, cruelly in the estimation of many onlookers, for the reason that Mark McNeil was in an offside position elsewhere.

As Southend manager Bobby Moore afterwards acknowledged, his side might just have salvaged a point but had they done so it would have been somewhat harsh on their opponents.

Orient's recent 3-2 defeat at Brentford in the newly-introduced Associate Members' Cup served as a reminder that our record at Griffin Park down the years has been a disappointing one.

With a further visit to the West London ground scheduled for next weekend, this time in the Canon League, Orient will be striving to dent Brentford's 100 per cent home record in matches against Os outside the sphere of cup football.

While we have managed an FA Cup draw at Brentford during season 1961-62 and beat Bees in a League Cup game there 12 years later, we have still to earn our first Football League point at this particular venue.

Visits stretch back to 1929-30 season and the days of the Football League South. Brentford won 3-1 that day and have subsequently won all six League games when Orient have been the visitors, by 3-0 (1930-31), 3-0 (1931-32), 4-2 (1932-33), 2-0 (1954-55), 1-0 (1955-56) and 5-2 last season.

e Road Briefing

In the light of such a record it is worth recalling that Orient's only League win over Brentford outside of East London was achieved in front of 10,300 spectators at Wembley Stadium in November, 1930.

That was the era of Orient's residence of Lea Bridge speedway arena. The Football League, acting on an objection by Torquay United, decided that the ground was not of a standard suitable for League football, and while improvements were made Os played home games with Brentford and Southend United at Wembley.

The Brentford-Orient Associate Members' Cup tie brought a home debut for our opponents for Bobby Fisher, a past member of this club's playing staff who recently joined Bees from Cambridge United.

Fisher, as it happened, was instrumental in setting up Brentford's first goal for Tom Finney — like Richard Key in the Orient goal also a former Cambridge player.

The reunion web could extend itself yet further next weekend at Brentford, in that we learn that they have engaged former Orient defender Nigel Gray on a month's loan, in his case from Swindon Town whom he joined last close season.

Orient's recent 4-3 victory at Exeter, achieved despite playing with only ten men for some 75 minutes, understandably remains a talking point among the club's followers.

Remembering that Os were at one stage 4-1 up, the match at St. James' Park will inevitably remain etched in the recollections of the club's fans for decades to come.

It is nevertheless no idle exercise to reflect on some of the occasions in the past when Orient have failed to take full points from opposition who have been reduced to ten players as a result of a sending off.

Last season, it will be recalled, Plymouth Argyle left Leyton Stadium 2-0 winners after having a defender sent off, admittedly rather later in the 90 minutes than was Bill Roffey's departure at Exeter.

Five years ago this very week, Bristol Rovers achieved a 1-1 draw here after losing a midfielder a mere four minutes into the second half.

The Ilford Recorder report of that game quoted the late Jimmy Bloomfield as commenting, "It's always difficult when you play against ten men. In theory if you use the spare man effectively the opposition should never get a touch of the ball. But it never works out that way."

The report bore out the then Os manager's observation by mentioning that "true to tradition, once Prince had departed Rovers looked a more Orient next weekend travel across London in search of their first-ever League point at Brentford. Orient's Keith Houchen and goalkeeper Paddy Roche are pictured from last season's Griffin Park meeting that brought Bees a 5-2 win. Roche was a non-starter through injury in the more recent game between the clubs at Brentford, in the Associate Members' Cup. Houchen appeared for Os as a second half substitute. (Photo: George Flower).

determined and accomplished side than they had with eleven men."

Earlier that season in the November, Orient were held to a 1-1 draw by Sheffield United whose Tony Kenworth had been dismissed.

Two seasons earlier Blackburn Rovers, deprived of the services of Tony Wagstaffe, returned north 1-0 winners of a Second Division match here.

Playing against ten visitors clearly does pose its problems — as Exeter City discovered against Orient last month.

Can you help either of the following out-of-town football fans?

Neil Slater, of 6 Princes Road, Aylesbury, Bucks HP21 7RZ, writes:

"I understand there was a team sheet printed for the Orient v Luton Town Texaco Cup match during season 1974-75 to supplement the Texaco brochure. I require this sheet to complete a set. I am prepared to pay the asking price within reason."

While Mr. P.J. Thomas, of 11 Shardon Road, Southdene, Kirkby, Nr. Liverpool, L32 6RT, is an Everton supporter and would like to establish contact with a female pen-pal between the age of 18 and 21 who follows this club. Letters direct to Mr. Thomas, please.
